

The moving finger having writ moves on, nor
all thy piety or wit
can lure it back to
cancel half a line,
nor all thy tears
wash out a word
of it. Omar Khayyam.

18th Sept. 1942.

Dear Auntie Alice,

I am writing this to you as Mum and Dad are busy packing. The enclosed order will explain why far better than I can.

Mt. H. P. Alexander of Noel & Porter Ltd, King Street. St. Helier will be posting this on to you as soon as communications with England are resumed, in case we should not be able to get in touch with you at that time. He also has some goods, which we have managed to save in store. You will know what to do with them.

Whatever you do, don't worry. We will get back to you somehow.

Everyone sends their love to everyone over there.

All my love,

Jean.

P.S. Will I spit in Hitler's eye for you?
